2 HOW THE CHALLENGE WORKS

Hospitals are grouped into three categories by headcount, covering institutions of every size:

HOSPITAL SIZE	STAFF HEADCOUNT
Category A	3,000 – 4,000 staff
Category B	1,500 – 2,999 staff
Category C	Below 1,500 staff

Within each category, the HR whose hospital brings in the most staff bookings for the marathon wins that category — so there are three winning HRs in total, one per category, each competing only against hospitals of a similar size.

NOTE — PLEASE CONFIRM: The headcount bands above are carried over as-is from the corporate version. Very few single hospitals run 10,000+ staff — that scale usually applies to multi-hospital groups or chains — so you may want different bands here. Flag if you'd like these recalibrated.

3 THE HR's ROLE

- Motivate your staff to take part — and keep motivating them.
- Reinforce why physical wellbeing matters, and position the Stallion Marathon as more than a single race day: it's a holistic, two-month programme of workshops covering physical, mental, emotional and skills development, building up to the run itself on 14th March.
- The more staff an HR brings to the start line, the stronger their hospital's standing in the Challenge.

Lemerian Workin Pvt Ltd handles every piece of on-ground logistics — posters, setup, banners — so an HR's energy goes entirely into getting people motivated, not into organising the event.
