02. OVERVIEW

The Stallion Marathon is a multi-distance community run hosted by Lemerian Workin Café, India's first Workin Café. It is built on one idea: everyone carries a strength they have never fully let loose. The run is where they find it.

The marathon takes its identity from the stallion — a symbol of raw power, freedom and pedigree — carrying forward the Khoj Khud Ki (discover yourself) story that sits at the heart of everything Lemerian does.

03. THE CONCEPT

Theme

Khoj Khud Ki — the search for one's own strength.

Metaphor

A stallion is not born tamed. Its power is natural, and what it chooses to do with it is its own. The run asks participants to stop holding back, whatever their distance or pace.

Why It Fits Lemerian

Lemerian Workin Café is a place where people have rebuilt their work and their confidence. The marathon extends that story from the café into the city, with the café as the start line, finish line and home base.

Tone

Emotional, storytelling-led and inspiring, with a premium sport feel. Lemerian is positioned as a beacon of light and hope.

A RUN WHERE YOU

FIND YOUR STRENGTH.

04 | THE RUN — VISION COPY

BORN TO RUN, FREE.

A stallion is never tamed — only trained. It channels its strength instead of losing it, and that discipline is what turns raw power into a clean, fast stride.

High-performing professionals carry the same instinct, and ignore it just as often. Deadlines come first, symptoms get waved off, and by the time the body insists on being heard, the cost has already shown up everywhere — in focus, in output, in the work itself.

Stallion is built on a simple belief: the sharpest minds belong in the strongest bodies. On 14th March 2027, Hyderabad's working professionals trade the desk for the start line — not to escape the grind, but to meet it stronger. On-ground health check-ups with practising doctors catch what a packed calendar lets slide, and a full field of distances means there's a pace for whoever shows up, whatever shape they arrive in.

"The strongest stride is still the one you choose for yourself."
